HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES
FOR ALL DISEASES OF
THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEARTBURN, DISGUST OF FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN LYING IN A RECUMBENT POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his cure, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have extensively performed more cures, and more suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Bowels.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, Induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1868.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to give my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a due regard to the welfare of my fellow-men, and especially in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

E. D. FENDALL.

SLEEPING IN CHURCH.

They would scarcely believe him when he told them that, when in Thurso some time ago, he on one occasion saw six hundred people asleep in church.—Speech of Dr. Guthrie.

O'er their devoted heads
While the law thundered,
Snugly and heedlessly
Snored the six hundred.
Great was the preacher's theme;
Screw'd on was all the steam;
Neither with shout nor scream
Could he disturb the dream
Of the six hundred.

Terrors to the right of them,
Terrors to the left of them,
Terrors in front of them—
Hell itself plundered
Of its most awful things,
Weak-minded preacher flings,
At the dumb-founded,
Boldly he spoke and well;
All on deaf ears it fell;
Vain was his loudest yell
Volley'd and thunder'd;
For caring—the truth to tell—
Neither for heaven or hell,
Snored the six hundred.

Still, with redoubled zeal,
Still he spoke onward,
And, in a wide appeal,
Striking with hand and heel—
Making the pulpit reel,
Shaken and sundered—
Called them the church's foes,
Threatened with endless woes—
Faintly the answer rose
(Proofs of their sweet repose)
From the united nose
Of the six hundred.

L'ENVOY.

Sermons of near an hour,
Too much for human power;
Prayers, too, made to match,
(Extemporaneous batch,)
Wofully plundered;
With a service of music
Fit to turn every pew sick—
Should it be wondered?
Churches that will not move
But of the ancient groove
Through which they have flounder'd,
If they will lag behind,
Still must expect to find
Hearers of such a kind
As the six hundred.

HOW TO GET SLEEP.

—This is to many persons a matter of the highest importance. Nervous persons, who are troubled with wakefulness and excitability, usually have a strong tendency of blood on the brain, with cold extremities. The pressure of the blood on the brain keeps it in a stimulated or wakeful state, and the pulsations in the head are often painful. Let such rise and chafe the body and extremities with a brush or towel, or rub smartly with the hands, to promote circulation and withdraw the excessive amount of blood from the brain, and they will fall asleep in a few moments. A cold bath, or a sponge bath and rubbing, or a good run, or a rapid walk in the open air, or going up or down stairs a few times just before retiring, will aid in equalizing circulation and promoting sleep. These rules are simple and easy of application in castle or cabin, and may minister to the comfort of thousands who would freely expend money for an anodyne to promote nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep!"

A PLUCKY old fellow, whose son was a student at a New England College, spent the day with him and stopped to tea. When his cup was filled he seized a bowl of salt, which he supposed to be sugar, and put the usual quantity in his tea. Sly glances and suppressed "snickering" led him to suspect that something was wrong, but the old fellow, who didn't like to be laughed at, worried it down; and putting on a face that was intended to make everybody think that he liked his dose of salts, he called for another cup, and upon receiving it, said to the head snickerer: "Young man, will you be kind enough to pass that bowl of salt?" The salt was passed, and in the most breathless silence, he dipped a couple of spoonsfuls into his tea, stirred it up, and tasted it with a look of apparent satisfaction. "Why, Mr. ——," said the young man opposite him, "do you drink salt in your tea?" "Always," answered the plucky old man, with great emphasis, and in his pleasantest manner.

JUDGE W——, who some years ago filled the office of county judge in —— County, though a good lawyer, was very eccentric. When a session of the Court was to be held, he would often take it into his head to walk to the county seat, a distance of thirty miles. On one occasion, however, he employed a horse and buggy, and after spending a couple of weeks in the hearing of causes, started for home on foot. When he had traveled something like a dozen miles he called at a hotel for rest and refreshments. The landlord, recollecting that the judge drove a horse when he went to court, inquired:
"Judge, what have you done with the horse and buggy you had with you when you went to —— the other day?"
"Thunder!" replied the Judge; "I have left them behind. I knew as soon as I started that I had left something, and it is those plaguy things; and now I have got to go back after them!" Back he went.

IT may or it may not be that most of our young men, in going to the Far West, are actuated by a laudable spirit of enterprise and a desire to extend the humanizing influences of civilization, but we fear this is not always the case. Occasionally an example comes to light that discloses a different impulse. For instance; in the summer of 1865 four young gentleman met for the first time in Omaha City, and purchased a team to cross the Plains. After having traveled a hundred and fifty miles west of the Missouri River, one of the party thus addressed his companions:
"Boys, we are now safe from officers and the laws; let each of us come out, tell what our real names are, and what we ran away for!" Particulars of colloquy not given.

A NEW definition of constitutional laziness comes from Ohio. Standing on the steps of one of the "single-team" taverns of that State was an unwashed Buckeye, whose shabby exterior did not indicate an industrious man. A gentleman on the opposite side of the street remarked to his companion:
"There is old Tim, again; wonder how he got out this cold day! He is the laziest man in town by all odds."
"Lazy!" replied his friend, "he isn't lazy; what's the matter with him is he was born tired!"

THE readiness of the Hebrew race in finding specious answers to the complaints of those who deal with them was never better set forth than in a recent instance where an eating-house keeper of that persuasion sold soup at two cents a basin. A customer having consumed his basinful complained that he had not had his money's-worth—the soup was bad, and he had found in it a piece of worsted stocking. Isaac retorted:
"D'ye think we can put bits of silk stocking in soup at two cents a basin?"

A FERVID young convert in Minnesota, during a recent revival, feeling great interest in the spiritual welfare of a friend, whose profession was that of a trapper, made public supplication for him in words following:
"Lord, there is Mr. L——, who traps for a living. Lord, he traps wild animals to support his family. O Lord, trap him!"

THE palindrome is a line that reads alike backward and forward. One of the best is Adam's first observation to Eve:—"Madam, I'm Adam." Another is the story that Napoleon, when at St. Heleua, being asked if he could have sacked London, replied:—"Able was I

THE VERDICT.

The impeachers, after much deliberation, selected the eleventh article as the one most likely to succeed, and therefore determined to allow a vote upon it, as a test. Should it fail, all would fail. A vote was accordingly had on Saturday, and resulted in 35 yeas to 19 nays—not two-thirds, the number required to convict. This, the impeachers' strongest article, failing, the acquittal of the President on the rest is conceded almost without dissent.

All honor to Messrs. FOWLER, FESSENDEN, GRIMES, HENDERSON, VAN WINKLE, TRUMBULL and ROSS, Republicans, who voted with the twelve Democratic Senators for acquittal. Independent, honest men, they adhered to their conscientious convictions, in the very teeth of the wildest storm ever raised by party friends to force party measures. History will do them justice, and place their names high up among those most deservedly honored, whilst it will rank the impeachers among that class who have never scrupled to sacrifice their country's good to their own or their party's base aims.

THE Baltimore Sun says, and it is good authority, that the acquittal of the President on the eleventh article of impeachment seems to have been received throughout the country with cordial approbation by reflecting men of all parties. Especially is this the case among business men—mercantile, mechanical and others—who are anxious to see the country quieted and trade revived. Of course there are exceptions to the general acquiescence in the righteousness of the verdict. Extreme Radicals, who expected a different result, are, apparently, a little soured, but the "second sober thought" will, doubtless, cause them to see that the great masses of the people are heartily sick of the whole proceedings of the "high court of impeachment" and all its "managers," as well as its aiders and abettors.

THE reception abroad of the news of the President's acquittal, the cable informs us, created "a profound sensation." All the London papers have editorials on the subject, and all agree in the statement, as a consequence, that "American securities are firmer and more active; that better prices are realized; and that United States five-twenties, both in London and on the continent, have materially advanced." That tells the story.

THE Methodist National Conference, in session at Chicago, on Thursday week, so far forgot God and itself as to resolve itself into a political convention, and pass a resolution to pray the next morning for the impeachment of President Johnson. The prayers were made, but a just God answered them contrary to the expectations of these revolutionists. He put it in the hearts of seven honest Republican Senators to vindicate justice, and save their country. Let political preachers hereafter remember that it is only "the prayers of the righteous that avail much."

FORNEY'S Press places the following journals on the "black list," because they did not denounce the Republican Senators who voted for acquittal: New York Evening Post, Chicago Tribune, Cincinnati Commercial, Providence Journal, Springfield Republican, Bridgeport Standard, Buffalo Advertiser, Buffalo Express, and Hartford Courant. This list, it will be seen, embraces some of the ablest and most influential journals in the country.

THE Senators from the States of California, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, and Oregon voted for conviction, while the vote of Connecticut was divided. The people in these States have overwhelmingly declared against Radicalism, and if these people had been properly represented in the Court of Impeachment, the vote for acquittal would have been 30 instead of 19, and the vote for conviction would have been but 24 instead of 35. The Radical party lives by "misrepresentation."

READING OUT.—A Radical Soldiers' Convention at Chicago—headed by John A. Logan, H. C. Alleman, and others of similar importance, (McConaughy's "aidship" wouldn't admit him)—on Tuesday read Senators Fessenden, Trumbull, Grimes, Fowler, Henderson, Ross and Van Winkle out of the Republican party. Keep on at that, Rads, if you think your party can stand it.

AT a Radical meeting held in Washington city on Friday last, and which was addressed by Senator Harlan, Representative Stokes, and other great lights of Radicalism, a negro orator read Chief Justice Chase and Messrs. Trumbull, Fessenden, Grimes and Henderson out of the party, declaring them to be hereafter unfit associates for any honest man. That's a high-strung nigger!

BEN. BUTLER is "investigating" the votes for acquittal, to see whether any of the seven Republican Senators were bribed. The supreme impudence of this thing will be apparent when Butler's thieving operations at New Orleans are remembered.

WE refer our Democratic readers to an article from the Clearfield Republican, a leading Democratic paper, on our first page. It takes a proper view of the Presidential question, and as Pennsylvania is so necessary to the election of a Democratic President, we trust that the sound reasons advanced will have a controlling influence in the New York Convention.

IN Ohio political reaction keeps pace with the wishes of the most ardent friends of a speedy return to the old constitutional form of government. At a late hotly contested election for Marshal of the City of Dayton, in which nearly 4,000 votes were cast, the Democratic candidate, John Ryan, was elected by forty-five majority. At the last election the Republicans succeeded in Dayton by nearly two hundred. Everything is looking well in Ohio, and the vote of that State may be safely counted for the Democratic candidate for President.

GLORIOUS VICTORY!—On Wednesday the Democrats elected their Mayor in Williamsport, Pa., by 300 majority.

Brigham Young forbids the Mormons to eat pork.

WHAT IS COMING.

The handwriting on the wall is so plain that even old veterans like Thurlow Weed are compelled to sound the note of warning. Paragraphs like the following should cheer the hearts of the Democracy everywhere and inspire them with courage to fight manfully the coming battle. The days of Radicalism are numbered, and its own prophets are foretelling its downfall. Read the extract appended, from the New York Commercial Advertiser, edited by Thurlow Weed, the "father of the Republican party," and believe that a better day is dawning:

Large cities, like Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati, San Francisco, and Rochester, have been wrested from our grasp. Nor is this all. Entire States have faltered by the way, and withdrawn their support from the Republican party. New York, instead of being in the Republican column, writhes under the incubus of fifty thousand Democratic majority. Pennsylvania, California, Connecticut, and New Jersey, so lately plucked like a brand from the burning, have likewise relapsed.

The Republican majority of fifty thousand in Ohio in 1864, has been cut down to less than three thousand, and the State which elected Brough by over one hundred thousand majority five years ago, now has a Republican Executive whose majority is less than that heretofore given by several of the Republican counties of the State. New Hampshire diminishes her Republican majority, and Michigan, which gave Mr. Lincoln twenty thousand majority in 1864, now gives the anti-Republican ticket forty thousand majority.

These results are but the shadow of coming events.

JUDGE TRUMBULL.

The Chicago Tribune, the leading Republican paper of the West, refuses to join in the hue and cry against Senator Trumbull and the six others who voted, in accordance with their conscientious convictions, against the eleventh article of impeachment. Read what it says of Mr. Trumbull—as follows:

"The gentlemen who demanded that Judge Trumbull should vote for conviction, whether he believed Johnson guilty or not, ought rather to thank God that they have a Senator who dares to do his judicial duty as he understands it—one who has the high courage and manliness to go through the Red Sea of obloquy and odium for conscience sake. Whether they will find another after he is crucified may well be doubted. One thing is certain, the Republican party not only cannot carry the next Presidential election on a verdict obtained by coercion and terrorism, but it cannot carry an election at any future time with such a record. Let it be well understood by the people that the Republican party demand the conviction of Andrew Johnson, right or wrong, hit or miss, and there will be the devil to pay, and no pitch hot. Why, we ask, did not gentlemen make their unconditional demand upon the Senate before Senators had declared their views of the case? Why did they preach about an impartial trial beforehand? Why did they fool each other with the idea that the impeachment was a trial? Why did they not declare then that the trial was intended to be a farce, a fraud, and a lie, instead of waiting till now? Why did they not pass a resolution beforehand like this: Resolved, That Andrew Johnson must be convicted, whether guilty or not."

THE Cincinnati Commercial closes a long article combatting the howl of the hot heads in its party against Chase, Fessenden, Grimes and Trumbull, in this wise:

"There may be those so foolish as to think the way to victory is to follow Forney in his effort to drive Chase, Fessenden, Trumbull and Grimes out of the Republican party on the eve of the Presidential campaign, but we hardly think the people who retain their senses will be in a hurry to echo his war-whoop and volunteer to fight under his black flag. Chase and Fessenden and Trumbull were Republicans when Charles D. Drake was the champion of the Border Ruffians of Missouri, and Ben. Butler was a Jeff. Davis secessionist, and John W. Forney was the servile tool of James Buchanan; and when we select leaders for the future, it may not be unwise to review the past."

THE Republican National Convention met at Chicago on Wednesday. Carl Schurz was made temporary chairman, and Joseph R. Hawley, of Conn., permanent President. The contest for the Vice Presidency was the principal excitement, Grant's nomination for the Presidency being certain. The Western men were for reading Fessenden and the other Republicans who voted for acquittal out of the party. The more prudent were against it, urging that the party could not afford it. The Radical leaders are evidently beginning to see "the handwriting on the wall."

— Grant was unanimously nominated yesterday. Of course.

— Colfax was nominated for Vice President on the fifth ballot.

A NEW and interesting chapter in the history of General Butler has just been published, which explains in some measure the reluctance of that official to leave his position at New Orleans, and throws a most damaging light upon his doings while in charge of the Department of Louisiana. The report of a committee of investigation, appointed by the Government, shows that in conjunction with his brother, the patriotic General chartered vessels for the purpose of sending merchandise and provisions to the rebels, purchased cotton and sugar of the rebels, run the blockade, and purchased a vessel for $30,000 which they chartered to the Government for $250 per day, although the person from whom they purchased had previously offered her services for $40 per day. The evidence as to these charges comes from persons who were directly implicated and who received their due proportion of the profits. No wonder that the patriotic General fumed and fretted at the loss of such a nice little plum.

GREELEY says, in the Tribune:

Mr. Johnson remains in the White House. The eleventh was deliberately, and we doubt not judiciously, selected as the article that would command most votes. This failing, all fail. There may be those who deem it wise and well to admit Senators from the reconstructed States and force a verdict of guilty by their votes; but we cannot concur. It might have been well to defer the impeachment until those States should be represented in the Senate; but, having initiated it, we think it would not do to admit new Senators to vote upon it after the testimony was taken and the argument closed.

THE howl of the Rump House, of the Radical journals, and of the Radicals all over the country, is the plainest possible confession that not justice and judgment were expected of the High Court of Impeachment, but partisan political conviction.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 19.—The following officers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania have been elected at the session here to-day, to be installed on Wednesday: Grand Master, Peter B. Long, of Philadelphia; Deputy Grand Master, Samuel F. Groisauer, Bucks county; G. Warden, B. Springer, Philadelphia; Secretary, Wm. Curtis, do.; Treasurer, M. B. IMPEACHMENT has cost four hundred thousand dollars. Some of the witnesses cost five thousand dollars each.

THE IMPEACHMENT CASE.

A Vote on the Eleventh Article.

The President Acquitted.

The Court Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, May 16, 1868.

At 12 o'clock precisely the Chief Justice, wearing the silk robe of office, entered and took his seat as presiding officer of the Court of Impeachment, and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to make proclamation.

The proclamation was made in the usual form.

The Secretary then proceeded to read the journal of the last days' proceedings in the case of the United States against Andrew Johnson, President.

When the reading was concluded,

Mr. Williams called up the order heretofore submitted in the following words:

Ordered, That the Chief Justice, in directing the Secretary to read the several articles of impeachment, shall direct him to read the eleventh article first, and the question shall be taken on that article, and thereafter on the other ten successively as they stand.

Senator Johnson inquired whether the order was debatable.

The Chief Justice replied that it was not.

Senator Johnson said that he would like to make a motion on it.

Senator Conness objected.

The question was then put on taking up Senator Williams's order for action, and it was decided—yeas 34; nays, 19.

Senator Wade voted for the first time, and voted in the affirmative.

Senator Grimes was not present.

The question was then taken on the adoption of the order, and it was carried by the same. Yeas, 34; nays, 19.

While the votes were being taken the members of the House of Representatives were announced as at the bar of the Senate. They entered, headed by Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, and attended by their clerk and doorkeeper.

Mr. Fessenden rose to make a motion to postpone the vote for an hour on account of the absence of Mr. Grimes, but on being informed that that Senator was in the Capitol, he did not make the motion.

Mr. Grimes immediately afterwards came into the Chamber, and took his seat in one of the side aisles.

Mr. Edmunds then submitted an order that the Senate do now proceed to vote on the articles according to the rules of the Senate, which was agreed to.

The Chief Justice rising, said by direction of the Senate: The Chief Justice desires to admonish the citizens and strangers in the galleries that absolute silence and perfect order is requested. It will be a subject of infinite regret if any violation of the order of the Senate will necessitate the execution of the further order that the persons guilty of disturbance be immediately removed. Then addressing the Senators, the Chief Justice said: Senators, in conformity to the order of the Senate, the Chief Justice will now proceed to take the vote on the eleventh article, as directed by the rule.

The eleventh article was read by the clerk.

The first name on the roll, that of Senator Anthony, being called, that Senator rose in his place, and the Chief Justice, also standing, addressed to him this formula:

Mr. Senator Anthony: How say you, is the respondent, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, guilty or not guilty of a high misdemeanor, as charged in this article.

Senator Anthony responded "guilty," and so the vote went on till all the Senators had responded, the vote summing up yeas 35, nays 19, as follows:

THE TEST VOTE.

For Conviction.—Messrs. Anthony, Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Drake, Edmunds, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson, and Yates—35.

For Acquittal.—Messrs. Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson of Tennessee, Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle, and Vickers.—19.

So Andrew Johnson was acquitted on that article.

The votes of Senators were waited for with the utmost anxiety, though nothing more than a general motion as of suspense relieved was made manifest when the vote of a doubtful Senator was given. It was noticed that Senator Cameron voted ahead of time. The Chief Justice had not concluded the formal question before the Senator's vote of guilty was pronounced.

Senators Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Ross, Trumbull, and Van Winkle, among the Republican Senators, voted "not guilty." Senator Wade, when his name was called, stood up immediately and voted "guilty."

Before the result of the vote was announced, but when it was known, Senator Williams rose and moved that the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment adjourn until Tuesday, the 26th May, at 12 o'clock.

Senator Johnson addressed the Chief Justice.

The Chief Justice said that debate was not in order.

Senator Johnson—Is it in order to adjourn the Senate when it has already decided on one of the articles.

The Chief Justice—The precedents are, except in one case, the case of Humphrey, that the announcement was not made until the end of the cause. The Chair however will take the direction of the Senate. If the Senate desire the announcement to be made now, it will be made.

Senator Sherman—The announcement of the vote had better be made.

Senator Drake—I submit as a question of order that a motion to adjourn is pending, and that that motion takes precedence.

Mr. Hendricks—The motion to adjourn cannot be made pending a vote, and the vote is not complete until it is announced.

Mr. Conkling—A motion cannot be made pending the roll-call.

Several Senators—Certainly not. Let the vote be announced.

Senator Johnson—I ask that the vote be announced.

The Chief Justice—The vote will be announced. The Clerk will read the roll.

The roll having been read by the Clerk, the Chief Justice rose, and announced the result in these words:

On this article there are thirty-five Senators who have voted guilty, and nineteen Senators who have voted not guilty. The President is therefore acquitted on this article.

No manifestation of sentiment was made on either side of the question. Whatever were the feelings of the Senators, members, and spectators, they were thoroughly suppressed.

Mr. Williams's motion to adjourn until Tuesday, the 26th inst., was then taken up, and after several fruitless efforts to amend, was adopted.

The Chief Justice then announced the Court adjourned until the 26th instant, at 12 o'clock, and vacated the chair. The members of the House retired to their own Chamber. The spectators, who had filled every seat and standing place in the galleries, immediately began to pour out into the halls and corridors, and the curtain fell for ten days on the national drama of impeachment.

The closing scene was not marked by the slightest breach of decorum or good order.

A Washington correspondent of the Age, in describing the "Scenes and Incidents" connected with the day's proceedings in the Senate, says that as soon as the result of the vote acquitting the President on the eleventh article was announced, the carpet-baggers, gamblers, and political preachers, who had swarmed the Capitol during the morning, rushed from the building like "rats from a burning barn." In their haste to escape from the scene of their defeat, they passed many a well filled pocket, which they forgot to pick. Some hurried to the railway depot and took the first train for the North or West. Others repaired to the hotel lobbies, there to mourn over the defeat of their party's favorite measure, and the gloomy prospect for spoils under Wade. The friends of the Constitution, on the other hand, were in high spirits, and congratulated each other with a hearty good will over the victory achieved in behalf of constitutional liberty. The patriotic members of one of our city fire companies brought out a small "field piece" and fired a salute, in honor of the great event of the day. The hotels and other public places were filled until a late hour last night with crowds of happy-looking men, who discussed with evident relish the virtual acquittal of the President and the triumph of the Constitution over the lawless Jacobins, who endeavored to overthrow it. The President was the recipient of many warm and hearty congratulations during the afternoon and evening, and the residences of Secretaries Seward, McCulloch and Welles were thronged with visitors up to quite a late hour last night, who called to tender their congratulations to those distinguished gentlemen, who have been faithful in their devotion to the cause of their Chief.

THE VERDICT.

It scarcely seems a matter for exultation that the High Court of Senators of the United States has not proved itself utterly degraded and infamous. It is still enough to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every true lover of his country, that a notoriously false and unjust verdict has been confidently predicted and impudently claimed; and that to obtain it every engine of force and fraud and temptation has been put in motion. And this was not done in a corner. The public press of the Radicals, their public meetings and demonstrations were part of the machinery in constant play to corrupt and intimidate the sworn judges sitting in the High Court of Impeachment. This was a crime; a crime against the law and against public morals—the burden of it hangs heavy on the party that perpetrated it. To this add all the corrupt dealings of the gamblers, and jobbers, and speculators, who joined hands with the impeachers, and staked their all on the success of the joint scheme. All these vile appliances, joined to the greedy thirst for office and plunder, brought thirty-five Senators to vote for an unjust, partisan verdict, unsustained by law or evidence. Yet the shame to our country is in some measure redeemed. The very members of the Senate whom the public voice would always have distinguished as men of integrity and honor, drawn together by no party tie or common interest, sustained successfully the cause of truth and justice. Not less appropriately, all the men whose life record is stained with corruption, debauchery, and every variety of profligacy and vice are found banded together in the attempt to prostitute the forms of justice to advance their own selfish, wicked ends. Wade has from circumstances, a certain pre-eminence among them, but his greedy selfishness is only a little more obvious; the same spirit moves them all.

We hail the signal triumph of the right in no spirit of party exultation. It is full of promise, full of glorious significance for our country and her institutions. Let it strengthen every man's faith, against which "the gates of hell shall not prevail."

To-day, we will let no ordinary political reflections escape us upon the great event. This is its first lesson to the Democratic party; put such men in office, maintain always such principles, that in every great crisis the just and true men of every other party must, of necessity, think, act, and vote with us. Thus, perhaps, we may be, in the hands of Providence, the instrument to raise again the old American standard of public virtue, and to restore real peace, prosperity and union to our country.—Age.

A NOBLE ANSWER.—This correspondence is brief, but full of matter for reflection:

(Dispatch to the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The following has been received here, directed to Senators Pomeroy and Ross, of Kansas:

LEAVENWORTH, May 14.

Kansas has heard the evidence, and demands the conviction of the President. (Signed) D. R. ANTHONY and 1,000 others.

To the above Senator Ross sent the following reply:

WASHINGTON, May 16.

Gentlemen: I do not recognize your right to demand that I shall vote either for or against conviction. I have taken an oath to do impartial justice according to the Constitution and laws, and trust I shall have the courage and honesty to vote according to the dictates of my judgment and for the highest good of my country.

(Signed) E. G. ROSS.

To D. R. Anthony and 1,000 others.

THE official document giving the votes alleged to have been cast for and against the new constitutions in five of the Southern States is conspicuously headed as coming from "the General of the Army." Straws sometimes show the drift of the tide as well as the direction of the wind, and whither we are rapidly tending is indeed manifest when the returns of State elections are communicated to Congress by "the General of the Army," and through Congress at its pleasure to the people, to the party, or to whom it may concern. At the present rate of march toward the Radical idea of a "republican form of government," how long will it be before the election returns of the State of New York will be made known by "the General of the Army" to Congress and then to the voters in this State? Another question is quite pertinent: Why was not "the General of the Army" called upon for the returns of the late election in Connecticut? No man in the United States was more interested in that election. The Hartford papers say that telegrams were sent hourly, by particular request, to the headquarters of the General of our Armies during the election and till the vote was counted. Grant headed the Radical ticket, and the election was assumed to be a test of his strength and popularity in Connecticut and elsewhere in the North. And the General received the fullest information on the subject. Why was not "the General of the Army" called upon to communicate his complete and early information on matters so vital to himself, as well as to the Radical party, to Congress? Is it too late to get a line from him on the subject now?—N. Y. World.

THE last sensation is the accidental discovery of a whiskey spring, near Nodaway, Missouri. The liquid flows from between two rocks, and looks like highly colored brandy, but it tastes and smells like pure whiskey, and has the same intoxicating effect. The man on whose farm it has been discovered expects to realise a fortune by the well.

IN his speech of March 2, Old Thad. Stevens queried with regard to his own favorite eleventh article, "though the Senate should decide the other charges in his" (the President's) "favor, how could he escape from this one?" The Senate answered the question on Saturday.

IT is said that Chief Justice Chase has positively decided to proceed with the trial of Jeff. Davis, at Richmond, on the 3d of June.

CONGRESS is doing nothing, most of the Radical members having gone to Chicago.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

President of College.—At a special meeting of the Trustees, on Friday last, Rev. M. Valentine, D. D., (Professor of Homiletics and Church History in the Theological Seminary,) was unanimously elected President of Pennsylvania College, in place of Rev. Dr. Baugher, deceased. A committee of the Board waited upon Dr. Valentine to urge his acceptance of the position. He did not see his way clear to decide at once, but agreed to discharge the duties of President during the present session—and entered upon them on Tuesday morning. His colleagues in the Seminary Faculty have very courteously divided his duties there among themselves, and will continue to perform them until he shall definitely decide whether or not to accept the Presidency of the College.

We trust he will make up his mind to take it, because we believe the place needs him. He has scholarly attainments of a high order, and we are much mistaken if he does not possess that knowledge of human nature and will to do right under all circumstances, (in other words, administrative ability,) which will soon give him rank among the best and most successful of College Presidents.

Sudden Death.—Rev. F. B. Wilson, Reformed Minister, of Columbia county, this State, whilst on a visit to a married daughter, Mrs. Jacob Beamer, and family, in Menallen township, this county, died very suddenly on Sunday morning last. He retired to bed the previous evening in usual health. When called to breakfast next morning he failed to answer, and upon a member of the family going to his chamber, he was found lifeless, though still warm. Dr. Brenneman was called in, and he pronounced the case one of apoplexy. The remains were interred at Arendtsville on Tuesday. The deceased leaves a wife and family in Columbia county, upon whom the intelligence of their sudden loss must have produced the deepest distress. Mr. Wilson, we are told, was a good preacher, and held in high esteem by his people and the church generally. His age was 49 years 9 months and 9 days.

Death.—Mr. John P. Hoffman, formerly of this place, died at his residence, in Shepherdstown, Va., on Saturday morning, the 9th instant, aged 45 years and 18 days. His remains were interred in Elmwood Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, by Mount Nebo Lodge of Free Masons and Caledonia Lodge of Odd Fellows, (of which Orders he was a worthy member,) assisted by neighboring Lodges of Boonsboro', Sharpsburg, Martinsburg and Charlestown. The funeral sermon was preached in the Presbyterian Church by Rev. D. H. Bittle, Lutheran Minister, to a crowded audience.

We observe in the Shepherdstown Register preambles and resolutions adopted by the Odd Fellow and Masonic Lodges there, expressive of grief over the death of Bro. Hoffman, and condoling with his bereaved family. The deceased, respected in life, is lamented in death.

It will be gratifying to the friends of the family to know that Mr. Hoffman had his life insured to the amount of $5,000, and that the sum has probably by this time been paid over.

Sad Bereavement.—We notice by the York papers that Hon. A. J. Glossbrenner, member of Congress from the York, Cumberland and Perry district, recently met with a severe domestic affliction in the death of his eldest son, Jamison, aged 23 years. He was a young man of much promise, beloved by all who knew him, and his loss is deeply felt.—We tender the stricken father and family our sincere sympathies in this sad bereavement.

Railroad Audit.—The audit of the Railroad account, by J. C. Neely, Esq., Auditor appointed by Court, has been continued until Tuesday, the 2d of June. The matter was up before him on Friday last, Messrs. North (of Columbia) and McConaughy urging that the $112,000 hypothecated bonds in the hands of C. S. Maltby, of New Haven, Conn., be admitted to a pro rata share of the earnings with the bona fide bond holders. Messrs. Wills and McCreary resisted the application, upon the ground that the bonds were redeemed from hypothecation by Mr. Case, President of the Company, and could not therefore come in on the fund. Witnesses are to be introduced at the next sitting of the Auditor.

Salute.—On Saturday evening, the Democratic cannon was taken to Cemetery Hill, and a salute fired in honor of the defeat of the eleventh article of impeachment. The glad tidings were thus borne "upon the wings of the wind" far and wide, and caused universal rejoicing among the friends of our constitutional system of government.

The Radicals looked very sour. They had better learn resignation. There are plenty more equally bitter pills in store for them.

Gettysburg Water Company.—The following officers were elected on Saturday last for the ensuing year:

President—George W. McClellan,

Secretary and Treasurer—Samuel R. Russell.

Directors—Geo. W. McClellan, Geo. Swope, E. B. Buehler, S. R. Russell, H. J. Stahle.

Five per cent. dividend was declared for the business of the last six months.

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court, on Monday, affirmed the judgment in the case of Harner vs. Fisher, from Adams county; also affirmed the judgment in the case of the Cumberland Mutual Protection Insurance Company vs. Douglas and others, (the Cold Springs company.)

Valuation of Bank Stock.—Judge Fahs, of York, the Assessor appointed by Gov. Geary to assess the Bank stock in this county, for purposes of taxation, has made a valuation of the stock of the Gettysburg National Bank at $60 per share (par value $50,) and of the First National at $100 (par value $100.)

New Post Office.—The Post Master General has established a Post Office in Menallen township, to be known as Wenks; and appointed William S. Cart, Esq., Post Master. A recent act of Congress established a new route from York Springs to Wenks, via Idaville—upon which we presume service will soon be put.

Tax Abatement.—By reference to our advertising colums, it will be seen that tax payers can save five per cent. by paying their Borough and Bounty taxes before July 1st.

Property Sale.—George E. Bringman, Esq., of Gettysburg, has sold his Forge property to Jacob Reiley, of Gettysburg, and Geo. E. Smyser, of York, for $6,000.

Steam Fire Engines.—Although York borough recently voted against an appropriation for steam fire engines, two have been secured by subscription—one by the Laurel and the other by the Vigilant co.

Railroad Items.—We learn from the Hanover papers that at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Littlestown Railroad, held on the 4th inst., it was determined to extend that road to the State line. Mr. Gilt, in his Report of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad, estimates the cost of the Extension, exclusive of the Right of Way, at $38,033.90.

At the annual election held by the stockholders of the Hanover Branch Railroad Company, on Monday of last week, the old officers were elected, as follows: President—Capt. A. W. Eichelberger. Managers—Reuben Young, David Wortz, Henry Wirt, John L. Jenkins, Joseph Dellone and Joseph Althoff. At this meeting the question of subscribing for 400 shares or $20,000 of stock in the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad was carried without a dissenting vote.

The afternoon train leaves Hanover at 1.50, and returns at 3.40, corresponding with recent changes on the Northern Central.

Fair.—We again call attention to the Ladies' Fair, for the benefit of St. Aloysius School, to be held in Littlestown next week, which promises to be a grand affair of the kind. The Exhibitions and Concerts, for the same meritorious object, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, will, we are certain, also prove successes. That both will be well patronized, the large preparations making and the general interest manifested in that region, abundantly foreshadow.

Vacant.—The Franklin Professorship in the College is still vacant, but instruction in Greek will be given during the term by Professors Ferrier and Stoever.

Dr. Burton's Tobacco Antidote promises to have an extensive run. It is "warranted to remove forever all desire for tobacco in any form," and "to restore sufferers from its injurious effects to robust health in a few days. Of incalculable benefit to consumptives." Capt. C. G. Miller is the agent for this county. For sale at Huber's Drug Store. It

Prof. Card.—It will be seen by his card in another column, that Jos. H. Lefever, Esq., recently admitted to the Bar here, has opened a Law Office in Littlestown. He will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted to his hands. It

Gettysburg Zouaves.—Will meet at their armory on Saturday, the 30th of May, at 8 o'clock, A. M., in full dress, with arms and accoutrements in complete order. The company are invited to participate with the "Franklin Zouaven" at a Pic Nic given by them at the grove near Grave Vine School House. Members of company are expected to prepare themselves with one day's cooked rations in haversacks, and every member is expected to walk. Members wishing to invite their friends can get tickets by calling on Capt. Norris or Lieut. Cress. By order of the Capt. WM. R. EYSTER.

Go and See—Capt. Norris' large stock of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and gentlemen's wear of every description, before purchasing elsewhere. He certainly has the finest stock ever offered in Adams county. His stock of Ready-made Clothing is not thrown together, but made by regular tailors and cut in the latest style, and all goods are warranted to give satisfaction. Give him a call and be convinced. May 20. 2t

To Builders.—Col. C. H. Buehler has just received a very large assortment of LUMBER suitable for Building purposes, including Boards, Plank, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c. Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, White Pine and Hemlock. Builders will do well to give him a call, as his stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates.

Also constantly on hand, Blacksmith, Lime-burners' and Stove COAL, with an extensive assortment of COOKING STOVES, of the best make, Hollow-Ware, Tin-Ware, Japan-Ware, &c., which House-keepers will do well to examine. Warerooom on Carlisle street, opposite the depot. tf

Hubbard's Combined Self-raking Reaper and Mower.—For sale by Henry Thomas & Son. This machine has two driving wheels, hinged joint and folding bar. The self-raker can be controlled by the driver, and a full sheaf made in all kinds of grain. If desired, the self-raker can be adjusted to deliver a sheaf at every revolution of the rakes, without any aid from the driver. We deem it unnecessary to give any further description, but refer all wishing to purchase to those farmers who bought last season. tf

Wire Tooth Hay Rakes, of best make, for sale during the season, by Wm. Wible. 1m

New People unacquainted with physiological chemistry are aware of iron in the blood, but all should know the importance of keeping up the supply, for debility, disease and death are sure to follow when the quantity becomes reduced too much. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this vital element and has cured many chronic diseases. It

Speer's Port Grape Wine.—For persons of sickly and debilitated constitutions, it is especially recommended as a valuable tonic and invigorator. As a dinner wine it it is pleasant and agreeable, and its exhilarating effects considerably assist digestion. For general family use, it cannot be excelled by the finest imported Port for taste, flavor, or juicy richness, while it is devoid of the deleterious and intoxicating qualities which uniformly characterize foreign wines.—Independent.

Our druggists have it. It

The Ancients desired "locks bushy and black as the raven" as one of the perfections of manhood, and tresses long, silken and lustrous, as the crowning beauty of womanhood, but Time, the sly old dog, drew his fingers through their hair and left "His Mark" in white. Time is now baffled by those who use Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, the greatest and most reliable Hair Restorative in modern times. [May 15. 1m

A Household Word.—The best, the only reliable, the cheapest. Try it, Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) My wife and children prefer it. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. 1m

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE is said to have given, in reference to the selection of a candidate for the Presidency, the very judicious advice, "that our nominee shall be a man upon whom all opposed to Radicalism can cheerfully unite, and against whom no prejudice can be brought to put us upon the defensive in the canvass." That is the ticket!

IT is impossible to estimate the amount in dollars which the Rump Congress has cost the country—but it certainly has spent directly and shocked the development of natural resources to an extent several times greater than the whole public debt of twenty-seven hundred million dollars. The people feel this, hence the reaction wherever and whenever white men go to the polls to express their views in regard to public men and measures.

THE Southern darkies are taught by the leaders of the Radical league that by joining the "Grand Army of the Republic," and by voting the Radical ticket, they will be entitled to pensions should they get disabled or when they get too old to work.

Boils.

Like the volcano, Boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. To remove the cause of such suffering it is only necessary to vitalize the Blood by supplying it with its Life Element, IRON.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP,

(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron) will do this effectually, and give strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM REV. RICHARD S. EDES, OF BOLTON, MASS.

"For years I was a sufferer from Boils, so that my life became wearisome through their frequent and persistent recurrence: finally a carbuncle formed in the small of my back. During its progress large pieces of decomposed flesh were every day or two cut away, and the prostration and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recovered from this attack two smaller carbuncles broke out higher up, and I was again threatened with a recurrence of the sufferings to which I had so long been subjected. It was at this time that I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have had nothing of the kind. For years I was one of the greatest sufferers. Other medicines gave me partial and temporary relief, but this remarkable remedy, with a kind and invigorating sense, went directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."

CIRCULATE THE TRUTH!

Let it be borne in mind that any one of our present subscribers sending in the names of four new subscribers, with the cash in advance ($8 for the four,) will receive a credit of one year's subscription on his own account—in other words, for each new subscriber sent in; accompanied by the cash, a PREMIUM OF FIFTY CENTS is allowed as a credit on present subscriptions. A number of subscribers have already paid themselves ahead in this way, and many others could do the same with very little effort. Remember, that the most important Presidential contest in our history is approaching, and that a proper enlightenment of the masses as to Radical negroism, corruption and tyranny, will surely defeat that party at the polls. The Democratic newspapers will do this, if properly circulated. The COMPILER, always in the front line of duty, will be found as earnest and faithful as ever. Democrats and Conservatives, help to spread its influence in THE CAUSE OF THE PEOPLE.

The Compiler for the Campaign!

WHITE MEN, TO THE RESCUE!

In order to place the COMPILER within the means of every voter in the county, we have concluded to offer it for the campaign—from this time until after the Presidential election, in November—at the following low rates:

Single Subscribers,..... $1 00 each.
Ten copies,.....$8 00 or 80 cents "
Twenty copies,.....15 00 or 75 " "

This will barely cover the cost of white paper, and we must therefore ask payment in advance in all cases. The paper will be sent immediately upon receipt of order, either through the mail or otherwise.

MRS. ERNESTINA POHL hung herself at Dubuque, Iowa, on Tuesday. Some neighbors going into her house found her little children tugging at the dead woman's dress, as she hung from a nail, and trying to make her speak to them. Her baby was found unhurt, but covered up under the bed in such a manner as showed that she intended to kill it. She was poor and had become low spirited in consequence of the failure of her efforts to procure her first husband's bounty money for their children.

J. M. SHIREMAN'S
REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines:

|---|---|
| Michael Fissel, | Stephen Gottler, |
| Moses Hartman, | Mr. Sterner, |
| Joseph Wierman, | Mr. Linn, |
| Ulrich Jacobs, | J. R. Hershey, |
| Jacob Hartman, | B. B. Woodburn, |
| Jacob Laman, | |

with others, too numerous to mention.

This machine has a self-raker, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates.

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain in the position open, close and latch gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

HORSE BREAKING AND HORSE SENSE.

A horse's sense is good common sense. Many a man does not know half so much about some things as a horse, and there is a great difference in horses. The horse is not naturally suspicious, but he is timid when young. He learns very soon what his weapons are—teeth and heels—and in what his security lies—flight. His boldness and the "glory of his nostrils" come when "he rejoiceth in his strength." With his age comes the knowledge of his powers, and if he has never been mastered—never broken to any will but his own—if he is to be made useful, the struggle must come sooner or later, and man's will or horse will must triumph. We think it best to begin quite young with colts to control them; so advise to halter a colt while it runs with the mare, and to do it after feeding it with carrots and sugar, until it thinks it will only get caressing from mankind, and has no fear of any man. The colt submits easily, because it is the easiest and pleasantest thing it can do, provided it is not frightened, and would as lief be led as loose, since the curtailment of his freedom is made up by sweets or carrots. The sense of smell in horses is very acute, and if they are suspicious of anything they always approach it cautiously and smell it. They should be indulged in this; and harness, saddle, &c., should all be investigated by the nose as well as by the eye before a more intimate acquaintance is forced upon the horse. A horse-ring of from forty to fifty feet in diameter is one of the greatest aids a horse trainer can have. In this a horse too restive and spirited to take a lesson may be tired out so as to be very docile, and a tired horse is much more susceptible to both favors and instruction than one full of vim and fire and play. There are a very few common-sense rules, which, if followed, will commend themselves to the horse as well as to the trainer, viz:

1st. Always feel kindly towards a horse, no matter what he does to you, and consequently never show "temper." Remember the horse knows instinctively how you feel.

2d. Never go near a horse if you are afraid of him; the horse will know it and take advantage of it before you acknowledge it yourself.—Turf, Field and Farm.

FOWLS IN STABLES.—Some farmers are not as particular as they should be in excluding fowls from the stables in which their cows are kept. We have seen hens complacently perched on the backs of cows, wholly indifferent to the efforts of the poor beasts to shake them off. This is a great annoyance to cows, and keeps them in a fretful condition, and thus impairs their productiveness. Besides, the droppings, which lodge upon and besmear the animals, are alike offensive to the skin and olfactories of the victims of this hen intrusion. But they are a pest in other respects. They contaminate the feed and mangers of cows, thus depriving them of the benefit of a considerable portion of the food allotted them. Fowls are good things, but mixed with dairy stock, they are out of place, and should have a separate domicil.—Rural New Yorker.

TO KEEP INSECTS OUT OF BIRD CAGES.—Tie up a little sulphur in a silk bag and suspend it in the cage. For mocking birds this is essential to their health, and the sulphur will keep all the red ants and other insects from the cages of all kinds of birds. Red ants will never be found in a closet or drawer if a small bag of sulphur be kept constantly in these places.

LICE ON HORSES AND CATTLE.—The Canada Farmer says one of the best remedies for this troublesome pest is a wash of tobacco water, made by infusing one pound of tobaco in two gallons of water. It should be applied frequently, and a little at a time.

LICE ON POULTRY.—If infested with lice, damp the skin under the feathers with water, then sprinkle a little sulphur on the skin. Let the bird be covered with insects or parasites, they will all disappear in the course of twelve hours.

WOOD ASHES FOR STRAWBERRIES.—There is no better fertilizer for strawberries than ashes We remember that one of the best crops we ever had was raised when the only manure was wood ashes. All soils will not alike be benefitted by such an application; but it is always safe to use ashes in connection with other manures. If ashes only are used, there are fewer weeds, as no seed can be introduced by the manure.

EVERGREENS.—Now is the season to plant evergreens and shade trees. Beautify the grounds about your dwellings.—Nothing is so beautiful as a yard or garden attached to your dwelling, in which are planted flowers and evergreens, which please and refresh the eye and cultivate a taste and love for the beautiful.

TO MAKE A HEN SIT ON A STRANGE NEST.—A broody hen may be made to sit in a strange place by being put on her eggs at night, in the dark, and shut down closely. After a day or two she will keep to them.

RECIPE FOR SALAD DRESSING.—After every possible precaution has been taken by careful picking and thorough washing to have the leaves free from sand or soot, I prepare a dressing by adding to a pint of water and vinegar, a tablespoonful of sugar, a pinch of salt, and a well beaten egg. Then when this mixture is boiling, I pour it over the lettuce leaves, they having been well drained, and cover in a close fitting tureen, for two or three minutes. If the lettuce is not very tender the dressing may be poured off, and again boiled and applied. This quantity is for six persons.—American Agriculturist.

PICKLED EGGS.—Boil the eggs until very hard; when cold, shell them, and cut them in halves lengthwise; lay them carefully in large mouthed jars, and pour over them scalding vinegar, well seasoned with whole pepper, allspice, ginger, and a few cloves or garlic. When cold, tie up closely, and let them stand a month. They are then fit for use. With cold meat they are a delicious and delicate pickle

A GOOD CEMENT.—Alum and plaster of Paris well mixed with water, and used in a liquid state, will form a very useful cement. It will be found quite handy for many purposes.

IF you have bees save a patch of ground for buckwheat for their pasture. If you have no bees this grain will not come amiss in pancake times.

GRAPE-GROWERS in California are giving great attention to the manufacture of brandy. The quality of that already produced is said to be excellent. Native brandy nine years old is pronounced quite equal to the imported article of the same age.

VERY TRUE.—When one sees the railway trains flying with the speed of the wind along the valleys, across the rivers, and through the mountains, and the lightning flashing man's thoughts over continents, and across the ocean, from shore to shore, one stands aghast in wonder at the stupendous triumphs of the human intellect and will over the tremendous forces of nature.

THREE CENT BONNETS.—The present minute style of bonnets has afforded scope for an economical invention in Paris. A new bonnet is now offered for three sous, equivalent to three cents. It is composed of thin, pliable strips of wood, reticulated like a net. The interstices are filled with narrow ribbon. Of course the trimmings are an extra expense and at the option of the wearer.

STATES IN THE UNION.—The four largest States in the Union are Texas, 274,356 square miles, California, 188,981 square miles, Nevada, 112,090 square miles, and Colorado, 104,500 square miles. New York stands the twentieth in size, and Pennsylvania the twenty-first, containing respectively 47,000 and 46,000 square miles, while Massachusetts stands the thirty-fifth in order, containing only 7800 square miles—Connecticut, Delaware and Rhode Island only being smaller in territory.

ORDINARY politeness cannot be learned in set forms at school, for, at the best, it will be hollow and deceptive; genuine politeness, like everything else genuine, comes from the heart.

KISSINGER & SHIREMAN,

NO. 2 WEST MARKET STREET, YORK, PA.,

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN PIANOS & CABINET ORGANS, MELODEONS, AND ALL KINDS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Retke & Schmidt,
Chickering & Son, Bradbury,
Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,
ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivaled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severest purity and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.
